

KASTSTONE

by Darren Williams

Kaststone by Darren Williams has evolved from a forty year history of manufacturing custom products for demanding & varied clients. Its early work was to produce products for sets for the movie studios such as Ivan tours (Flipper) and the Jackie Gleason show as well as Disney World.

We have produced products for department stores such as Saks, Bloomingdales, Bonwit Tellers & Neiman Marcus. Our range of work & clients runs from Publix Markets to Donald Trump's Mar A Lago Ballroom in which he was recently married.

We have had the honor to be chosen to manufacture for designers such as the late Gianni Versace for his homes in Miami & Milan.

Our product is made to reflect the old world craftsmanship that is all but a memory in current time while being practical and functional in its current application.

We sell product not price and have been rewarded with clients that have worked with us for more than three decades. Kaststones's artisans strive to make the best possible and let others copy.
